

EnRoute's Official Questionnaire

There is no moment of delight in any pilgrimage like the beginning of it.”
- Charles Dudley Warner, American Essayist

Thank you for taking the time to fill out EnRoute Consulting's questionnaire. Please be as detailed as possible in answering the following questions, as we will be using this information to begin researching possible opportunities for your time off. These details will help us determine which opportunities might be of particular interest to you. It is important for you to start thinking seriously about where and how to spend your time. In addition to filling out the following questionnaire, please attach or send a current copy of your resume detailing past and current volunteer and work experience.
